PROFILE

I am a college student currently pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Information Technology (BSIT) with a specialization in Mobile and Technology. I am a hardworking student who seeks employment. While I may have a basic understanding of English, I am constantly studying to improve my language skills. One of my strengths is being meticulous and organized when it comes to completing tasks. I believe in effective time management, allowing me to meet deadlines and deliver high-quality work. Furthermore, I am dedicated to ensuring customer satisfaction, as I value the importance of providing excellent service.
